

The current situations with Sinclair and Pappas broadcasting does not serve the public interest and the FCC needs to take action against funding unequal time for political parties on the airwaves.